

This half written and half notes story got thrown away by mistake, but mainly because I have extreme dyslexia and get tired writing stories that will never be published. And to broke to hire a ghost writer. I have the complete set of Oz books by Frank Baum. And wanted to create a Lovecraftian Oz story. I will give a synopsis of what I had written. In the story Emma Roberts was visiting her eight-year old cousin named Dorothy. She was very sick, but she loved her books on Oz and having Emma read the stories to her.

Unknown to Emma, Dorothy had found a baseball size glowing crystal that changed colors within like that of a rainbow. It fell from the night sky and when she was looking up at the stars, she saw a shooting star fall from the sky to the ground. She kept the crystal in a box under her bed. However, unknown to Dorothy what she found was a wishing star.

One night she held the crystal and wished Oz was real. In an instant a loud wind blew around the house and the crystal glowed so bright it lit up the whole room and Dorothy quickly put it back into the box. Dorothy family lived in the woods. And outside in the woods was an old woman with an evil face. Behind her stood a man made of tin holding an axe. A wicked looking scarecrow holding a pitchfork. And a huge lion the size of an adult grizzly bear.

The old woman was a wicked witch and the four plan to kill everyone in the house to retrieve the crystal. You see this is a wishing star crystal. And depending on the wish be it good or evil. The last person if wished evil the star will grant the next person an evil wish even if the person wished a good wish. To reset the crystal the person making a good wish must sacrifice their life to the crystal. The last person making an evil wish on the crystal would die horribly.

The next night the wicked witch commanded her winged monkey demons to attack the house. The huge lion, the tin man, and the scarecrow broke into the house looking for Dorothy. Dorothy family fought back the best they could. And Emma being a close friend of the Sherlock Holmes of Vampires sent a message by scrying mirror asking for his help.

The Stalker got the message and as fast as thought arrived at Dorothy's home. The Stalker summoned thousands of bats that attacked the winged monkey demons. Dorothy told Emma of the crystal. And Emma being a Paranormal Reporter, remembered from the many books The Stalker has in his vast library on the supernatural, she read about a wish crystal. Emma told the father of Dorothy, but for the crystal set things right Dorothy would have to give her life to the crystal.

Dorothy over heard what Emma said and went back to the crystal. She told the crystal she would give her life up. And the crystal grew very bright. Emma and Dorothy father saw the light coming from around Dorothy's door. As they rushed to her room and opened the door, they saw Dorothy glowing like a rainbow and then the light shot up crashing through the ceiling and creating a real rainbow in the night sky. The Stalker, wicked witch, bats, winged monkey demons, murderous Tinman, Lion, and scarecrow were all taken aback. The fighting for an instant stopped.

Emma jumped for Dorothy and was taken up into the rainbow. Emma and Dorothy found themselves in Oz and a beautiful woman dressed like a queen, glowing golden, and with little Munchkin people running behind her, came up to Dorothy. The beautiful woman was the good witch Glinda. She told Emma that Dorothy will have to stay in Oz since she reset the crystal and the crystal made her wish come true. Dorothy told Emma it was ok because she wasn't sick anymore.

The good witch Glinda told Emma how to defeat the wicked witch and her evil crew. Then Dorothy gave out a happy scream because behind Emma was the good Tinman, Lion, and scarecrow who all three hugged Dorothy. Glinda then waved her wand and Emma with the good Tinman, Lion, and scarecrow return to house where the fighting continued. The good Tinman went axe to axe with the evil Tinman. The good lion went fang and claws with the evil lion. And the good scarecrow went pitchfork to pitchfork with the evil scarecrow. The Stalker opened fired with his automatic pistols on the wicked witch while the wicked witch fought back casting lightning bolts from her wand.

Glinda told Emma how to destroy the wicked witch. And Dorothy's father having a Flat-bed pressure washer truck drove out into the middle of the battle. Emma then holding the pressure hose called out to the wicked witch. "I don't need no wand, I got this!" and opened up the pressure hose on the wicked witch. A blast of water hit the wicked witch and parts of her started to dissolve away like sand. The wicked witch screeched out a horrible scream and at the same time the good Tinman decapitated the evil Tinman. The good lion ripped the throat out of the evil lion. And the good scarecrow set fire to the evil scarecrow.

The bats tore into the winged monkey demons as The Stalker summoned hundreds of more bats. Emma shut off the water hose, there nothing left of the wicked witch. The evil Tinman, Lion, Scarecrow, and winged monkey demons faded away. The good Tinman held up his axe and Scarecrow held up his pitchfork in triumph, yelling in triumph "for Dorothy!" the good Lion gave a triumphant roar! Then they too faded away.

The Stalker dismissed the bats as Emma ran over to him. He told her and Dorothy's father that she will be safe where she is. And will live forever in Oz that her wish created from her favorite books. The father told Emma that Dorothy only had a few months to live. Emma was sad because she loved her little cousin, but at the same time was comforted that Dorothy was safe, and in a world, Dorothy was happy with. Somewhere Song <https://youtu.be/BRSVP0G6UgQ>
